Dear Ms. Williams:

The following training materials and accredited program that you submitted to us have been reviewed and approved in accordance with the Michigan Department of Agriculture's (MDA) "Procedures For Approving Food Safety Training Materials and Programs". Specifically:

Approved Training Materials

The Food Marketing Institute (FMI) "Super Safe Mark" food safety and sanitation training program meets MDA's "Guidelines for Food Safety Training Materials".

The training material package consists of:

1. A "Super Safe Mark: Retail Best Practices and Guide to Food Safety and Sanitation" course book
2. A "Super Safe Mark Supervisor's Guide"
3. The "Super Safe Mark: Retail Best Practices and Guide to Food Safety and Sanitation"
4. Course Curriculum Breakdown for both the two day and one day agenda.

Accredited Programs

The accredited food protection manager certification program, used in conjunction with the training materials, is the National Registry of Food Safety Professionals.

Thank you for submitting the training materials and accredited program information to MDA for approval. Information regarding FMI's Super Safe Mark approval will be posted on the MDA list of approved Food Safety Training Materials and Programs. You may view the list on our website at: www.michigan.gov/mda

Please feel free to contact me at (517)-335-4604, with any questions.

Sincerely,
